IN THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The Woman's Club was attended by a large number yesterday afternoon, the meeting being held in the Carnegie Library. In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. E. Mason, who is on the sick list, Mrs. J. J. Hagerman occupied the chair.

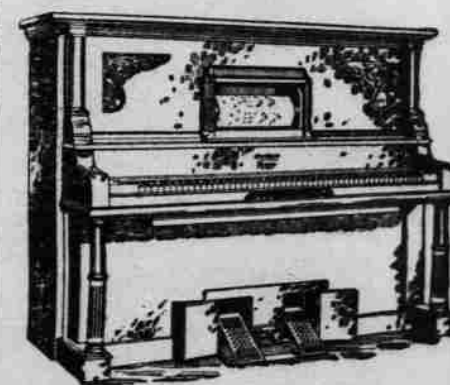

The program committee was in charge of the day's program, which covered another epoch in French history. Miss Rodkey talked in her usual entertaining manner on Louis XIV. and Mrs. Hagerman addressed the meeting relative to the influence on France and other European countries of the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. The general discussion showed a remarkable preparation on the part of the membership.

Mrs. R. M. Parsons entertained the Entre Nous Club at her home on N. Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Kilgour is entertaining informally a number of lady friends at cards this afternoon.
